ASPINWALL'S ASHES.

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE REBEL RISE AND FATAL FALL.

In Central America—The Sacked City Misery and Woe on Every Hand—American Board for the Seacoast—Troops Depart—Relief Asked.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Pacific mail steamship Aspinwall has arrived here. She left Aspinwall on March 24 while the rebels were in quiet possession of the town. Among her passengers was the American consul, Charles Yen, who is shut up in a cell at Panama during the trials there. Dr. D. Emory, of 354 West Fifty-eighth street, also a passenger, said:

"I went to Aspinwall on the Aspinwall on her last trip from New York. We found the town in the hands of the rebels. I saw that Americans were safe and so I left the ship for an evening stroll. I saw the natives walking languidly about, each carrying a musket. They are most insignificant looking men, and are as ignorant as savages. I was frightened to look at them. As I walked along, looking up at some of the curiosities, I suddenly heard the click of several rifles. I turned and saw the rebels coming into the harbor, looking into the barrels of half dozen muskets which some of the rebels had pointed at me. Just as I was about to say something a gruff voice called out in English:

"Who are you?"

"I am a citizen," I said, "and I am a passenger on the Aspinwall."

"I am Preston," said the man more politely than I expected. "You had better return to your ship. I can not vouch for your safety on the streets."

I returned to the ship and remained there during my stay in town. The rebels were wretched. They were dirty and high-priced. They charged from $4 to $5 a day, and had to scrub to wash what he got. Aspinwall is the last port before I leave. Two thousand have been 15,000 people there, and a refuse was thrown into the street, think it was a blessing that it was burned. The rebels played a sharp game, and the town in which they were quartered. Early in March they began their attack on Panama under the command of Alzina, and all the forces at Aspinwall were sent there. Then Preston took Aspinwall with a force of 1,000 men and New York's police force, and the rebels could not hold out. The rebels had one-third of what they were worth, a penalty of imprisonment, and thus obtained large sums of money. They needed ammunition, but, and suppose that is why they seized the town. The rebels could not afford to pay the men, who were sent to work for them, fired four bullets at his pursuer and the fifth through his brain, killing himself instantly. Letters found on the rebels indicate that he was a fugitive in Mexico, where, and resolved never to be taken alive.

Allen went into Richards' bank in Manzan and presented three notes, one of $100 and two of $50 each, purporting to be signed by General M. A. Smith, and asked the teller to cash them. The banker discovered that they were forgeries and refused to take them.

Allen again returned to the bank and asked for a bill of exchange, and paid him $100. The bank informed him that he were forgeries. As soon as possible, M. R. Richards put the city marshal on Allen's track. After leaving the bank, Allen purchased a revolver. He then started to leave the city on foot, following the railroad track.

The marshal with his posse followed. After chasing Allen a mile he was overhauled.

Brandishing his revolver, he informed the crowd that Allen was a fugitive and a murderer.

Allen, who had been following his argument, As soon as Preston became convinced that he would be impossible for him to maintain his position, he set fire to the city in various places, and had made his escape only a few of his followers succeeded in getting away with him. The city is almost a complete ruin. Only three houses are left standing.

THE SACKED CITY.

PANAMA, April 4.—The particulars of that city are still mystery reported. The attack made by the rebel chief Preston by the Colombian troops was led by Col. Allen Preston, a rebel commander, is a lawyer who has the reputation of being a desperado. He recently killed three men in Aspinwall, one of them was a member of the Aspinwall police force. Col. Allen, who is a fugitive in Mexico, was captured by the rebels and held for ransom. He was released on a condition that he would be imprisoned, and thus obtained large sums of money. They needed ammunition, but, and suppose that is why they seized the town. The rebels could not afford to pay the men, who were sent to work for them, fired four bullets at his pursuer and the fifth through his brain, killing himself instantly. ## THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1885.

CHARLES W. BUCK has been confirmed as Minister to Peru.

The report that Mrs. Garfield is to be married soon is denied by authority.

PRESIDENT CLAYBURN has withdrawn the nomination of General A. R. Lawton, named for the Mexican Mission.

If it was designed to erect the Bartholdi statue at Cincinnati, the money needed for the pedestal would be raised in twenty-four hours.

A Nasberville compilation indicates that probably 25 per cent. of the wheat crop of Tennessee has been ploughed up. If this is correct, the total damage to the crop is probably 35 per cent.

SENATOR EVERTS, in an argument on the repudiated bonds of Virginia, denounced as rogues, swindlers and repudiators the political associates of his brother Senators, Riddleberger and Mahone.

The two bands of desperadoes are still confronting each other in Rowan county, and have exchanged several fusillades, but up this time no one has been killed. The town of Morehead has been depleted of its reputable citizens, leaving the place in the possession of the factious elements. The telegraph operator has been compelled to flee and is now at Mt. Sterling, hence communication by that means has been cut off. The authorities troopers have telegraphed to Gov. Knott for to suppress the lawlessness and three companies of the State Guards have been ordered out and will go to Rowan county immediately. The companies from Lexington, Mt. Sterling and Richmond have been selected for the duty.

The Senate adjourned finally on Friday without confirming the President's appointments of Lewis McMullen, of New York, to be Appraiser of the Port of New York; W. W. Lang, of Texas, United States Consul at Hamburg; C. T. Russell, of Connecticut, United States Consul at Liverpool; A. H. Cross, of Pennsylvania, United States Consul at Athens; E. P. Howell, of Georgia, United States Consul at Manchester; Henry P. Kermochan, of Louisiana, Naval Officer at New Orleans; James O. Henderson, Collector Internal Revenue for the Eleventh District of Indiana; John T. McGraw, Collector of Internal Revenue, District of West Virginia. It is stated that it is the intention of Mr. Cleveland to resappoint some of these officers and to make general changes in the Internal Revenue service and among officials acting under the Department of Justice, more especially United States District Attorneys. Postmasters of the first-class and United States Marshals whose tenure is fixed by law at four years will be allowed to serve out the full term unless upon charges being made against them. The Assistant Treasurers of the United States in all the large cities will probably be changed at an early day.

Beecher on Evolution.

Editor Ballou: The undersigned heard Mr. Beecher's lecture at Paris and furnishes the following brief synopsis: He said, "I am a clergyman, I have six brothers who are ministers. My sister, Harriet, is a teacher. I am next to it, and my father was a clergyman. My subject is a prolific one. The Bible is true, but not all inspired. Most of the Old Testament is Jewish history and most of the New is Christian. So many reporters and tell them to write this, that and the other. No one would be so ignorant as to claim inspiration for polygamy, for he begat and we begat and they begat, &c. The story of man's creation is a very good one, but a beautiful legend and nothing more. Then the six days of creation meant six periods of about six million years or thereabouts. Geology establishes that fact now, notwithstanding the fact that so many people are educated and understand that they make the world a race of beggars.

True prayer is going up to communing with God. All ignorant prayer was like so many fighting to see who should climb the tallest highest. Lord give me this, give me that, &c. The stone was a

The stonement was a dogma he did not believe in. Sin he admitted was the transgression of the divine law. Children could not transgress that law, therefore could not sin, and depravity was a natural and natural result of the fall.

While the presence of depravity was a natural and natural result of the fall, the atmosphere was a natural and natural result of the fall.

Several nights ago a riot occurred among the colored employees of the lime works at Rockmart, Ga., in which knives and pistol figured. Mitch Mitchell has died from the effects of the affray, and another is at the point of death.

William Bothwell, sentenced to be hanged at Harrisburg, Pa., next Tuesday for the murder of William Nichols for the alleged seduction of the former's niece, has been condemned to death for life by the board of parole of that state.

It is given from a very reliable source that the Neward machine works, now temporarily located in Columbus, O., since their buildings were burned down last summer, will return to New York and rebuild their old works in the fall of this year.

A great many cattle are dying in the neighborhood of Scotlandburg, Ind., from what is supposed to be dry murmur. T. Boyd, a stock dealer, has lost several fine steers recently, while others have shown signs of the disease.

It was despatched from the lower order of animals, such as the monkey. He was not anxious about his ancestor, so that he desponded far enough away from the house.

It is a pity that after this giant has for forty years preached so grandly the truths of the gospel, in his old age, in "the yellow and ear leaf," should make such an awful evolution.

WASHINGTON WAIFS.

Two Recent Appointments—Samuel J. Hause, Postmaster—Qualified.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The president made two recent appointments in John S. McCalmont, of Pennsylvania, commissioner of customs; and John Johnson, resigned, and John C. Garrison, of Virginia, deputy first commissioner of the treasury.

Samuel J. Randall is resting well and feeling much better.

Messrs. Phelps and Kelley, ministers to England and Italy respectively, were qualified in office by the secretary of state.

The Waring faction.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 4.—News from Morehead is received under the heading of "Morehead is a good place to live and let live." After the "Toliver party left for Farmers' Martin's return to the hills to gather recruits. The Toliver party returned to take possession of the town. The others are in the woods at Johnson's.

The popular annual drawings for the governor and other offices to proceed to Rowan county to quiet the faction fighting.

Samuel Cox's Mother Dead.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 4.—The mother of S. C. Cox, of Zanesville, died yesterday, surrounded by four daughters, but brother, Col. Sullivan and her son. She was the daughter of Judge Sam Shumway, of Utica, who came here in 1804, wife of John Cox, who died in 1832, and was Sam Shumway. She was born in Franklin, Pennsylvania in 1801. The family was driven west by yellow fever. They came from New Castle, Delaware.

Frank Hurd is silent.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—Frank Hurd is in the city at 105 S. Nicolls house. Regarding himself as a private man while his congressional contest is in progress, he persistently refuses to express himself on public questions. All his money is in his pocket, and he is captured twenty-four days, is in. He may be given the drives, and he will always be given the days for repudiation. The case will come before the election committee of the next congress.

tion, tearing down the old press and shipping it. We can truthfully say that Fred understands the business in every minutia, is a rapid workman and highly deserving young man."

OUT ON SOUDAN'S SANDS

TAMAI OCCUPIED BY THE BRITISH AND THE CITY AFIRE.

Another Battle Fought, but an Inconsequential Victory for the English—Complicated Rumors—Dodge a Personal Interview.

LONDON, April 4.—A dispatch from Suez gives the following account of the progress of events:

"Gen. Graham occupied the heights above Tamai. During the night the rebels fired three series. One hundred were killed and three others wounded. Gen. Graham advanced to Tamai and took possession of the spring."

Another dispatch says:

"Hill above Tamai, 7 a. m.—The guards and Bengalee troops, the marines and Berkshires regiment and the sikkis will occupy Tamai Monday. The remainder of the forces will follow when the water supply has been secured."

Another dispatch from Gen. Graham gives the following account:

"Hill above Suez, April 3—Noon.—Our forces advanced and occupied the village of Khar. We encountered a slight opposition and found little water, and that of a bad quality. Am going to return with my whole force to the first series. Four soldiers were wounded in occupying the village. Of these two belonged to the Australian contingent."

A dispatch which was filed at Suez says:

"Tamai is in flames. The British force occupying the place was one killed and six wounded."

Complicated Rumors.

LONDON, April 4.—It is stated with extreme reserve that the relations between the English and the French are not good. The English ambassador in London have assumed a somewhat strained character by his excellency having failed to make his appointment with his lordship personally, in consequence, of the arrival of Granville's official. It is evident the appointment of Granville is to avoid personal interviews with his excellency at the most critical stage of the negotiations, as it is alleged, it is causing much distress in high circles. The report may possibly be true to Granville's temporary in disposition, which is confounding him to his bones.

GRAY INK.

PARIS, April 4.—President Graye Installs De Riveson undertaking the task of forming the cabinet, notwithstanding the opposition of Guimbretière.

BECAUSE HE KISSED HER.

Pedro Moran Assailed for Over Indulgence in Smoking Blues.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 4.—E. Law Rogers, a prominent lawyer of this city, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Pedro Moran, a well-known musical student. Mr. Rogers is in with the charms of Miss Hardisty, a niece of Mr. Rogers, who is quite a prominent society belle. Miss Hardisty visited Mrs. Gordon, who is a fashionable boarding house on North Charles street the mother of Moran herself.

A few days ago while on a visit to the house, Moran induced a colored servant girl to hold Miss Hardisty while he kissed her. The girl, who is the daughter of a colored man, was greatly frightened and her parents appealed to her uncle for protection, and Mr. Rogers demanded an apology from Moran, which was refused, hence the assault. Mr. Rogers was released on his own recognizance. The parties concerned are well known in social circles and the affair has created quite a sensation.

DEATH TORTURE TOO SWEET.

The Folly of Hanging a Negro Who Should be Drawn and Quartered.

BALTIMORE, April 4.—Ex-Emmett is in jail in Baltimore county over an outragous case. Miss Katie Gray a negro named Holloway is accused.

Immediately after her arrival home Miss Gray's father aroused the neighbors and started in pursuit of the ravisher. The traveled but right, but did not catch up with the criminal. The police were called and the cut parents appealed to her uncle for protection, and Mr. Rogers demanded an apology from Moran, which was refused, hence the assault. Mr. Rogers was released on his own recognizance. The parties concerned are well known in social circles and the affair has created quite a sensation.

HULBERT'S SUCCESSOR.

B. Roth to Be Appointed a Longview Director by the Governor.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—There is a rumor to the effect that B. Roth has been selected by Gov. Hovey to succeed W. F. Hulbert as permanent director of the Ohio Academy for the term beginning April 6. Mr. Roth is the ex-director, takes an active interest in all benevolent institutions of this class, and has abundant leisure to attend to the duties of the director. He will be seated in the chair of the ex-director, Mr. Hulbert, the retiring director and present president, has been the warmest advocate of the new command board, sessions so obnoxious to the public at large, and often commented on and opposed by the press.

A STATE CAUSE NEXT.

NEW YORK, April 4.—A meeting of representative canoists from the principal cities of the state was held here to perfect arrangements for the meet of the American canoe association in May next. It was decided that the meet would be held in the city of New York, at Ronks Park, three miles south of Mowhawk. Over 100 canoists from all parts of the country will attend. The campment will continue for several days.
